Attacking the Fake Battery "YUASAN" in China

To whom it may concern,

Guandong Huizhou Yougxingda Storage Battery Co.,Ltd, based in Huizhou, Guagdong, China, sold batteries with the trademark "YUASAN", which infringes our trademark "YUASA".

According to the Administration for Industry and Commerce (AIC) of Huizhou, Guangdong (惠州市市场监督管理局), they found 3,700 battery packagings with the trademark "YUASAN" in Huizhou, Guangdong, China (See attached picture).

GS YUASA requested the AIC of Huizhou to conduct raid action against YUASAN distributor. On March 9th, 2018, they officially seized those packagings as a trademark infringement.

Batteries with the trademark "YUASAN" are not our products.

Please make sure to purchase items directly from our authorized stores.

GS YUASA takes a strict stance on this issue and will take every possible legal enforcement to stop fake batteries.

If you find any suspicious battery or if you have any question about this issue, please contact us via the link below:
